

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The Spirit of Peace

Fred Emerson Brooks

This poem was written by Mr. Brooks for Lookout Mountain, W. R. C., and read by its President, Mrs. Georgia Hodgman, at the dedication of the Peace Monument in Berkeley, California, February twenty-second, nineteen hundred and twelve, the seventh stanza being set in the bronze tablet on the side of the monument e hear the dead of ages cry-

And all the toiling millions plead:-
How long shall human beings die
To satisfy a nation's greed?

Let Christian nations bear in mind
This world is but a monster school
Where they are set to teach mankind
God's charter law—the Golden Rule.

Can we our conscience justify
While selling savage nations rum?
Is war religion's battle cry?
Shall we serve God with life and drum?

Let all the ships that plow the sea
The human race still closer bind:
While that proud banner of the free
To world-wide peace leads all mankind.

Let freedom's soaring eagle scare
All warring vultures from the earth
And heavenward all the incense bear
That mothers burn around the hearth.

War's curse is not alone it's dead:
What endless grief the battle starts:-
The path of glory heroes tread
Is ever paved with broken hearts.

Let women weep no longer for
Their loved ones slain by man's caprice:
From out the palsied throat of war
There comes the silent prayer for peace.

This war scarred monster seems to say:
War is a nation's only Vice:
Give thou thy fellow man fair play
And make this world a paradise.

War clouds will never mar the sky
When peaceful mortals come to know—
The first to shout the battle cry
Do not themselves to battle go.

Let nations try some wiser scheme.
With world-wide laws to make them just:
A world-empowered Court Supreme
With world-police to say—they must !

Let precious blood no more be shed.
Nor human backs with taxes bend;
Let war have no more tribute dead!
Cries Reason: Let there be an end!
